Admission to a Hospital

1 Arriving on the ward

1. Why might a doctor decide to admit a patient to hospital?

_____

2. Who takes the patient to the ward?

_____

3. Who is expecting the patient on the ward, and what do they show the patient?

_____

4. Why does the nurse sit with the patient and ask questions?

_____

5. What does the video say the traffic light assessment helps the hospital do?

_____

6. What should a patient do if they feel worried or do not understand something?

_____

7. Which four observations are taken regularly in the video?

_____

8. Where is the small device used to measure oxygen saturation placed?

_____

9. What does the oxygen saturation measurement tell staff, according to the explanation?

_____

10. How can the patient call for help when they need something?

_____

Care on the Ward

11. How often does the junior doctor see the patient, and why?

_____

12. What does the doctor ask permission to do before examining the patient's chest?

_____

13. What does the doctor ask the patient to do with their shirt and their breathing?

_____

14. How does the patient choose their meals, and how do they receive them?

_____

15. When are drinks available?

_____

16. Which two identity checks does the video mention before tablets are given?

_____

17. Which two questions does the nurse ask about the patient's condition before giving pain relief?

_____

18. Which medicine is given in the scene, and when will the nurse return to check its effect?

_____

19. What is a consultant, according to the video?

_____

20. Who discusses the patient's condition with the consultant, and what do they look at?

_____

After watching

Discuss: Which three actions in the video help the patient feel safe and informed? Give examples from the video.